HOW NAVVIES LIVE.A striking picture of the life lived by a very importation section of the community is given by Dr. Reginald Farrar in a report prepared for the Local Government Board.While the Brooklands motor-racing track near Weybridge was in course of construction a complaint was received by the Local Government Board as to the failure of the contractors to provide proper accommodation for the navvies engaged in the work, and as to the nuisance to the district arising from this default. Dr. Reginald Farrar was instructed to inquire into the matter.
After describing the track and its cost, he says that night and day shifts were at work, that the average wage might be taken at about 24s. a week, and that at the time of his visit at least 1600 men were employed daily on the work. In addition to those in regular employment there were a variable and uncertain number of irregular workers, who work about two days at a time, draw a "sub," and then hang about the public-houses, till the money is consumed. There were also casual unemployed labourers and tramps who had come into the neighbourhood on the chance of a job or to sponge on the regular navvies. In all it may be assumed that a floating population of not fewer than 2000 men has been added to the normal population during the month of April."I found no provision whatever made by the contractors for the housing or accommodation of the men in their employment. There were not even any shelters to which the men could resort in wet weather. The navvies employed either (1) find lodgings in the neighbourhood and walk or cycle to their work; (2) come in by train from longer or shorter distances; (3) sleep 'rough' for want of accommodation."
After dealing with the difficulties of finding lodgings in the neighbourhood, and estimating the number of men who travelled from London at 300 (paying 4s. 6d. each a week for tickets), Dr. Farrar says:"There remain those who sleep 'rough' for want of accommodation. The contractor's manager is inclined to minimise this element, alleging that those men sleeping 'rough' are not genuine navvies, but casual labourers, loafers, and tramps. Having been round the works by night as well as by day, and conversed with scores of men, I can confidently state that many—probably 300 or more—of the men regularly employed on the works at the date of my visit were without any proper lodging."When the public-houses were closed Dr.
Farrar and two constables made a search and found the following:—Six men sleeping in straw yards, in or under the stacks. Seventeen men sleeping in a disused cowshed, 24ft. by 12ft. by 7ft. at the eaves. This shed was inside the track. The men were sleeping on the bare ground, without straw or hay for bedding. The available air space was certainly less than 200 cubic feet per head. More than a score of men were lying or sitting round a brazier near a coffee-stall, having no other prospect of shelter for the night. About thirty were sleeping in a dell near the railway line in groups round fires, which they had kindled between the trunks of felled trees. A casual search revealed three men sleeping among the gorse and heather of Weybridge Common. I cannot doubt but that a careful search would have led to the finding of many more. As was the case in the day-time, the great majority of these homeless men were genuine navvies, regularly working for the contractors."Dr. Farrar gives the following among his conclusions:—"The proximity of London (nineteen miles) is regarded by the contractors as, to some extent, exonerating them from the responsibility of providing accommodation. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, and enhancing the difficulties of the case, I am still of opinion that the contractors have failed to meet their moral responsibilities towards their workmen and towards the district which they have flooded with such a large number of non-residents. I would suggest that any contractor employing more than a certain number of men on any works might be put under the obligation to inform beforehand the sanitary authority of the district concerned as to the commencement of such works and of their close.
The sanitary authority should be under the obligation to notify the Local Government Board, and thus a current register of constructional works might be formed and kept up to date."The Egyptian Gazette*SUBSCRIPTIONS.Alexandria, Cairo, and the Interior of

THE CASABLANCA SITUATION.

ARMISTICE GRANTED.
HEAVY ARAB LOSSES.

CASABLANCA, September 13. The Chaouia tribes sent a deputation to General Druce offering surrender. The General granted a suspension of hostilities until tomorrow, and said that it would be useless for the deputies to return unless all his conditions were accepted. (Havas)

CASABLANCA, September 13. The stragglers who surrendered declare that the Arabs lost 300 killed and many wounded, but this is probably an exaggeration. There are two other camps in the vicinity: it is expected that General Druce will next attack these. (Reuter)

THE "LUSITANIA'S" VOYAGE.

NEW RECORD CREATED.

LONDON, September 13. Unprecedented interest is being taken in the voyage of the "Lusitania" on both sides of the Atlantic. Scores of marconigrams are published showing the daily progress of the vessel. She is expected to smash the Queenstown record. Extraordinary preparations are being made to welcome her on arrival in New-York. (Reuter)

NEW YORK, September 13. The "Lusitania" has arrived. She completed the voyage in 5 days and 54 minutes. She was twice delayed by fog. Her average speed was 23.01 knots, which beats all westward maiden voyage records; but the average speed is below the westward records of the "Deutschland" and "Kronprinz Wilhelm" of 23.15 and 23.09 knots respectively. In view of the delays she is confidently anticipated to prove the fastest liner afloat. A scene of great enthusiasm was witnessed on her arrival. (Reuter)

THE BULGARIAN RAIDS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 13. The commander of the troop at Seres has complained to the Porte of the small number of troops at his disposal, which, he says, does not permit of his taking vigorous steps against the numerous Bulgarian bands infesting the district. (Reuter)

POLE EXPEDITION.

NEW YORK, September 13. Mr. Wellman and two companions started in the direction of the Pole in a dirigible balloon on the 2nd instant. The start was most successful, but a northerly wind soon drove the balloon back over Spitzbergen where it alighted. The expedition has returned to Tromsø. (Reuter)

MODERN EGYPT.

A correspondent writes to the "Rochester Post Express":

I find Egypt changing in character. The Mohammedans are being corrupted by the Christians, and the simple living taught by the Koran, whereby the believer abstains from strong drink and other vices, has become infected with the gay and giddy pleasures of the French. Cairo, the city of the Arabian nights, and the Mohammedan call to prayer is now mingled with the bacchanalian songs of the café chantants. In many cases the system of the harem is being exchanged for something worse. The average Mohammedan has but one wife, but in many cases he has a sweetheart in a house around the corner.

The ghoul of modern science are robbing the graves of those who made the pyramids. A telephone line has been stretched out of Cairo almost to the ear of the Sphinx, and there is a hotel at the base of the Pyramid of Cheops, where English men and women drink brandy and soda between the games of tennis and golf.

The Egypt of to-day is a land of mighty hotels and multitudinous tourists. Our consul-general estimates that Americans alone spend almost four million dollars here every winter, and the English, French and Germans spend almost as much. He estimates that there are ten thousand Americans who visit the Nile valley every season and that it costs each one of them something like $10 per day for an average stay of two months.

The native are growing rich and the Mohammedans are for the first time in the history of Egypt, piling up money. They are investing their surplus in real estate, and it is this that has done much to swell all land values.

Egypt is still a country of the Egyptians, notwithstanding the government of the English and the influx of the foreigners. It has now about 10,000,000 people and of these 9,800,000 are either Arabs or descendants of the original Egyptians. The most of them are Mohammedans, although there are all told something like 600,000 Copts. The Copts are the descendants of the ancient Egyptians. They have a rude kind of Christianity, and are, as a body, better educated and wealthier than the Mohammedans. They are noted as clerks and accountants and are also fine workmen in gold and silver and in other such trades. They are money makers and money savers and I understand that many of them, especially in upper Egypt, are now making fortunes. The pure Mohammedans do not as a rule go into banking or money-lending. That is against the Koran and they invest most of their savings in lands.

The foreign population of Egypt is less than 200,000. The greater part of it is to be found in Alexandria and Cairo, and in the other towns of the Nile valley, as well as in Suez and Port Said. There are more Greeks than any other. The Greeks have been exploiting the Egyptians and the Nile valley for more than 2,000 years and they are to-day the sharpest, shrewdest and most unscrupulous business men in it.

A PARLIAMENT IN TURBANS.

"Whatever the Almighty has ordained, let it happen," said the Persian Premier, when his coachman begged him to leave Parliament by a back exit to avoid strange people near the other gate. So he went the usual way, and was shot dead by a money-changer (Aug. 31, 1907).

This dramatic incident calls attention to the romance of modern Persia—the establishment of a Parliament among the wearers of turbans—a constitutional movement which the "Times" says has "transformed the whole situation in the country."

"Few events could afford more suggestive food for meditation to the practical statesman and to the speculative student of history in the making," adds the "Times" in a most informative article. "The magnitude and the energy of the movement in the northern provinces are unquestionable. It has achieved startling results, almost without violence and by the mere menace of popular action. In a land which has known no form of rule but the uncontrolled dominion of the great King since the days of Cyrus and of Xerxes, it has established an elected Parliament with very wide constitutional powers, which is conscious and jealous of its rights. Before that movement the greatest princes and potentates of the kingdom have bowed low."

"The Ain-ed-Dowleh, who was governing Persia with boundless authority and relentless severity last year, fell without a struggle at its summons. The Zill-es-Sultan, an uncle of the Shah, whose commands were law over almost half the kingdom for nearly forty years, has been dismissed from the Governorship of Isfahan on its demand. Great provincial chiefs like Asaf-ed-Dowleh, the Governor of Khorasan, and a host of high officials and courtiers, have been forced to surrender their posts and their emoluments. Even the Belgian heads of the new Customs service, who enjoyed the special countenance and support of Russia, have had to resign their lucrative and important offices in deference to the cry of the people. The Shah himself, who at first showed reluctance to confirm the Constitution granted by his dying father, quickly found it expedient to ratify that document in the amplest and most solemn form. Yet more significant, perhaps, is the way in which the powerful and highly organised religious chiefs of the nation, the Mujtehids and Mollahs, are constrained to continue at the head of a movement which they have come to regard with suspicion and with fear, lest opposition to it should shatter their spiritual authority."

"But great though the power which has wrought these changes must manifestly be, its nature and extent and the degree of permanence which it may possess are for the present incalculable to Western observers. Behind it there must be a certain number of men possessed of considerable faculty for organisation. These men did not originate the revolution, though doubtless they had been preparing for it. The late Shah offered no resistance to their demands, and the first Persian Parliament actually met for the despatch of business in the autumn, and at once became supreme in the State."

"More remarkable even than the revolution which the reformers have effected in the central Government have been the changes which they have accomplished in local administration. Throughout the north-eastern provinces, and in many towns in other provinces, they have not only driven out the former Governors, whose sole occupation was to amass riches by extortion and corruption, but they have achieved the far more difficult and creditable feat of creating a comparatively efficient local government instead of the old despotism. In many places the new authorities have their own police, and pay them, a precaution against oppression which the former Governors and their deputies never took. Order is better preserved and the property and persons of strangers as well as of natives are safer, where the new authorities command, than where the survivors of the old system yet remain. The machinery of the movement undoubtedly consists of a network of secret societies. Little, naturally, is known of the numbers and the constitution of these bodies, but they are said to have their headquarters, with supplies of arms and of bombs ready, across the Russian border, and it is certainly through them that the movement is spread and directed."

"The general objects which the reformers have in view are the preservation of Persia from foreign control, and the establishment of some tolerable form of domestic government and administration. It may be doubted, however, whether even the most enlightened of them have any clear ideas as to how these ends should be attained. The proceedings of the Parliament have shown that the leaders of the popular party have almost as little grasp of the real facts of the world as ordinary Chinamen. Unlike the local administrators, the Legislature has not displayed any capacity for constructive legislation, and it has not hitherto produced any statesman of commanding ability and character. These are serious shortcomings in a nation which aspires to self-government."

"Over against the reformers stand the forces of reaction. They are necessarily considerable in a country like Persia. It is no secret that the reigning Shah, Mohammed Ali, tolerates the Constitution only because he is afraid to attack it without the assurance of foreign support. About him are gathered all the classes which grew rich upon the spoils of office under the old régime."

"The Parliament, not unnaturally, has disappointed the extravagant hopes which its creation excited. Some of its own members are complaining that its labours have produced nothing but anarchy, and it has failed utterly and conspicuously when tried by that great touchstone of statesmanship, the management of finance. It has no money, and it has no practicable plan for getting money. The general situation is manifestly unstable, and the risks to Europeans, which an unstable situation always involves in Mohammedan countries, are aggravated by some special features of the position in Persia. The frequent resignations of Ministers and the invasion of Persian territory by Turkish troops cannot but increase the general unrest. The position is plainly critical, and it imposes upon the Powers immediately concerned the obligation of watchfulness, judgment, and firm action in common, in order to avert the danger of very serious complications. Events in Persia may clearly at any moment tax the resources of the friendliest diplomacy."

It was because the Persian Premier was believed to be a traitor to the Reform movement that he was shot by a man who, having done the deed, shot himself.

REVUE COMMERCIALE

Coton.

Grâce à la persistance de nos haussiers dans leurs manœuvres, pour commencer, et à la surprise du Rapport du Bureau d'agriculture ensuite, le marché a changé d'allure et de tendance à trois reprises différentes pendant la semaine qui vient de finir. Cela n'a pas nui pour sûr à l'activité des affaires; tout au contraire, à chaque revirement la lutte a été plus vive et cela a toujours mis de l'entrain. Quoiqu'au fond ce que nous venons de dire soit relatif, on peut quand même se déclarer satisfait des événements à ce point de vue. Par contre, pour ce qui est des prix, le cas est tout autre, étant donné que le résumé de nos faits et gestes ou pour mieux dire de toutes nos fluctuations consiste en une baisse de 25/32 du point maximum atteint dans le courant de la semaine et de 7/16 de tallari depuis vendredi dernier.

Pour ceux qui doutaient de la faiblesse de notre marché et du peu d'importance du groupe haussier qui avait fini par croire qu'il était réellement en état de dominer et de mener les choses à sa façon, la preuve est désormais faite et il ne reste qu'à espérer qu'une fois pour toutes la petite spéculation se convaincra que quand l'édifice pêche par la base, les crises ne suffisent pas pour faire monter les prix et les consolider.

Il peut y avoir un moment de griserie, ce qui est toujours pardonnable; mais, ceci admis, nous aimons à croire que le reste du temps il ne s'est agi que de manœuvres ayant pour but de faciliter la besogne aux copains qui auraient été chargés de passer les paquets à d'autres. Dans tous les cas, cette façon d'agir serait plus intelligente que celle consistant à vouloir, en cinq ou six personnes, commander un marché avec toute une combinaison de circonstances adverses comme celles que nous avons eues!

Et ces circonstances ont été nombreuses, soit, en premier lieu, le rapport du Bureau d'Agriculture de Washington avec la baisse qui en a été la conséquence et qui constitue un véritable coup de masse; puis, le développement rapide des arrivages chez nous, ne rencontrant que des acheteurs peu disposés à tout absorber, même avec les concessions continuelles consenties par les vendeurs; ensuite, l'abstention presque toujours absolue de la filature touchant à tout ce qui est embarquement délaissé et finalement, les avis de plus en plus favorables au sujet de notre récolte. Avec tous ces atouts pour la baisse, ce serait une véritable aberration que de penser seulement que l'on peut faire la hausse ou tout simplement maintenir les cours.

Et puis, franchement, on ne saurait s'expliquer cet entêtement à vouloir endiguer le courant: du moment que la baisse est inévitable, pourquoi ne pas la laisser se produire dès le début de la campagne, pour acheter après dans des conditions qui vous permettront de spéculer avec moins de risques et vous donneront plus de chances de profiter d'une amélioration éventuelle à la suite d'un changement quelconque dans l'orientation du marché?

Mais assez de réflexions et de conseils qui ne nous sont nullement demandés et revenons à la revue du marché.

La séance de samedi, sans le moindre encouragement réel, ni du dehors, ni local, a été très ferme et c'est en hausse de 7/32 de tallari que les cours ont fini par s'inscrire. Dans l'attente du Bureau qui devait arriver le 9 au soir, les vendeurs montraient une réserve excessive et naturellement cette attitude a fait le jeu des haussiers.

Lundi, sur le bruit controuvé d'ailleurs, que des affaires importantes avaient été faites avec la filature et sur quelques pronostics de 68 à 70 pour le Bureau attendu, il y a eu accentuation de la hausse jusqu'à 20 15/32, mais la tenue du marché du disponible ayant été des plus faibles, quelques ventes vers clôture ont fini par être faites pour compte de nos exportateurs; ce qui nous a fait réagir à 1/8 de tallari.

Jusqu'à là il n'y avait après tout rien d'extraordinaire, et en réalité ce n'est que le lendemain que les événements ont commencé à se dessiner. En effet, le Rapport du Bureau d'Agriculture avec ses 72 7/10 comme condition de la plante et la première baisse d'une trentaine de points qu'il a produite sur les marchés américains a fini par saper la situation et à partir de dit moment la fin blessée n'a fait que dominer en plein, pour nous mener tout droit au cours de 19 11/16 pour le Novembre, auquel la semaine s'est terminée.

La baisse dans ces conditions n'est pas complètement en rapport avec celle subie par les américains, mais une fraction de plus ou de moins n'est pas de conséquence quand on est engagé dans la voie voulue, sur tout que, en général, on commence à se rendre compte de ce que peuvent nous valoir la continuation de la gêne monétaire, l'anxiété du cultivateur à vouloir vendre et l'importance de notre récolte. Certes, celle-ci n'est pas encore en poche, mais quand on n'entend plus discuter que sur un seul point, à savoir si nous aurons 7 1/2 ou 8 millions de Cantars, et que ces informations nous viennent de l'intérieur, bien malgré soi on se laisse influencer.

Il y a dans ceci une menace de surproduction qui sera d'un grand poids dans la question de la différence éventuelle entre américain et égyptien et ce point n'est pas à perdre de vue. Les reports sur Janvier et Mars n'ont plus augmenté, mais nos exportateurs ne désespèrent pas de voir la spéculation leur offrir un peu plus tard cette source appréciable de bénéfices, dont ils ont si bien profité ces dernières années.

On a fini par se rendre compte sur notre place que nous avons été bel et bien bluffés par les informations journalières d'Amérique qui n'ont fait que nous annoncer d'avance sur dégrader à cause de la sécheresse pour voir le

In Spring-Time Many People Need a Good Tonic.

Mrs. R. Boyer Writes From 1491 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., Concerning Pe-ru-na. Read Her Letter Below:

MRS. R. BOYER

"If any one has reason to praise Peruna, it is surely myself.
"Last spring I became run down from the serious effects of lingering cold and several complications united in pulling me down.
"I could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit.
"I finally tried Peruna and it did wonders for me.
"In two weeks I was like another person and in a month I felt better than I ever had before.
"I thank Peruna for new life and strength."

Aids Digestion, Promotes Sleep.

Mr. E. Arnold, Westbury, N. Y., writes:
"I wish to say a good word for your valuable remedy, Peruna. I have taken many kinds of medicine during my life, but find that Peruna stands ahead of all. It aids digestion, promotes sleep, quiet the nervous system, strengthens the throat and vocal organs. I have used it for catarrh and to break up sudden colds which is the best of all.
"I contracted a severe cold once which ended in pleurisy and left me weak, and every change of weather would bring a return of old pains. Peruna now vanishes all pain. I cannot praise it enough. I tell all my friends that it is the best medicine used for the life of life. If any word of mine will lead others to try it, you are at liberty to use my testimonial in any form."

Gave New Life and Force.

Mr. L. D. Townsend, suite 2, Sand 4, Century Bldg., St. Joseph, Mich., writes:
"I am grateful for what Peruna has done for my family.
"Six months ago my wife's health was very much run down, lacking vigor and suffering with pains in her head and back.
"A friend advised her to try Peruna, which she did with most satisfactory results. In a few weeks she was completely restored to her usual vigor, and is now happy, well and strong, thanks to Peruna.
"I have tried Peruna myself when tired and overworked and in every instance I have felt better within a day or two."

to spend the whole night with a tremendous strain on his respiratory organs. I have time and again gone home so worn out that I could neither eat nor sleep, and a number of my colleagues have been in the same condition.
"But Peruna has changed this. I found that after using a bottle or two, my system was greatly invigorated with new life and force, and I can now fortify my system to endure a greater strain than was ever before. Peruna is certainly a very necessary to me, and keeps me in splendid health."

Headache and Backache.

Mrs. Nannie Hall, 12 Herbert street, Atlanta, Ga., writes:
"I write to tell you how much good your Peruna has done for me. I was so sick and nervous that I was almost dead. I could not eat nor sleep nor work any at all, but was in bed nearly all the time, and was almost a skeleton. I was so poor. Now I can eat anything I want and it doesn't hurt me, and I can sleep all night long and get up and work all day. I don't have any nervous-

Pe-ru-na, a Standard Tonic the World Over.

From the bracing rigors of winter to the balmy warmth of spring-time is a climatic change that affects every one more or less. A great multitude of people, however, are so affected by the change as to require medical assistance.

If such people neglect to take a good tonic that will safely tide them over the trying weather of early spring, the system is weakened, the blood over-loaded with effete materials of the winter season and the victim is rendered an easy prey to acute ailments.

It has been the universal experience of mankind that a spring tonic of some sort is necessary. All kinds of remedies, herbal and mineral, have been used. There is usually great uncertainty as to the operation of the average spring tonic.

Peruna, on the other hand, has been in use for so many years and in such a variety of climates and by such a multitude of people that its beneficial operation for spring ailments has become a practical certainty. Peruna can be relied upon as a spring tonic. It cleanses the blood by correcting the digestion, which is the source of good blood.

Mr. C. A. Landgrave, Box 85, Coulbary, Ohio, Gives His Experience With Peruna. Read His Letter Below:

MR. C. A. LANDGRAVE

"I had been a slight sufferer for a number of years, but paid little attention to it until the spring of this year when my suffering became very severe.
"I had pain in the head, back, liver, chest and other parts of my body, besides indigestion which caused me much trouble.
"I tried medical aid, but to no purpose. I wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice, telling him of my various ailments and he informed me that I had systemic catarrh.
"After using the first bottle of Peruna, I felt relief. I continued to use it until I had taken four bottles, when I felt entirely cured. I recommend Peruna to others."

Doctors Called It Consumption.

Miss Ella L. Matthews, Box 117, Hill City, Tenn., writes:
"I find much pleasure in writing you to let you know that I have been taking your wonderful tonic, Peruna. From experience I have learned that there could be no greater medicine in the world than Peruna.
"Several physicians had pronounced my disease as consumption. I had been a sufferer for several years, and was growing weaker all the while, until I could hardly walk across my room.
"I was so fortunate as to get a Peruna book, and after reading it carefully I decided Peruna was the remedy I needed, so I began taking it. Today my health is better than it has been since I had the disease, and I cannot express half the praise which is due to Dr. Hartman for his great and wonderful remedy and his advice regarding taking it. I do not think I would be long if this day had it not been for Peruna."

Catarrh of the Head.

Mr. C. H. Haddock, Antwerp, O., writes:
"My daughter Allie, after taking three bottles of your Peruna is entirely cured of catarrh of the head of two years' standing. We have used Peruna as a general tonic, as well as for catarrh, and are well pleased with it and recommend it to anybody who has catarrh. Anybody wishing any information can write to me."

For special directions everyone should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Pe-ru-na is for sale by all chemists and druggists.
The following wholesale druggist will supply the retail drug trade in Cairo and Alexandria, Egypt.

E. DEL MAR.

tout se résumer en un recul de 2 points en tout dans la condition de la plante! On dit que New-York est toujours haussier et que c'est New-Orleans qui vend. Mais il nous semble que le fait que c'est le Sud qui est le vendeur est bien plus significatif que si c'étaient les non professionnels de New-York qui se mettaient à la baisse. Cela ne veut pas dire assurément que la récolte ne court plus aucun danger, car elle est en retard, mais en somme c'est toujours un indice favorable.

Notre marché du disponible a absolument manqué d'entrain et au fond ce sont les cotons nouveaux de la Haute-Egypte qui ont alimenté les affaires. Il est cependant de fait que ce n'est qu'en se montrant de facile composition sur la question du prix, que les vendeurs sont parvenus à placer ce qui était destiné au marché.

Comme cote, officiellement le Mit Afifi a subi une réduction de 1/2 tallari, tandis que pour les provenances Haute-Egypte elle a été de 5/8.

De la Basse-Egypte, il n'y a eu que quelques balles jusqu'ici et le dernier cours pratiqué a été de 21 1/8 pour un lotin de 7 balles de Tanta. La marchandise de Gizeh a obtenu jusqu'à 21 tallaris. Tout cela ne forme pas base.

Les exportations de la semaine ont fini par dépasser quelque peu les prévisions avec leur total de 6500 balles, contre 3700 l'année dernière.

Pour la semaine prochaine, les choses s'annoncent mal comme première journée, mais on ne saurait rien dire, d'autant plus que l'importance de nos embarquements et d'une façon générale au début de la campagne dépendent beaucoup des nouvelles affaires qui se font chaque jour pour expédition immédiate.

L'année dernière, le chiffre était de 4700 balles.

Liverpool a été peu actif pour les Egyptiens disponibles avec ses ventes de 100 à 200 balles par jour.

Quant aux prix, la baisse relevée pour la semaine est de 3/16 pour le spot qui est coté à 10 1/2 et de 16/64 pour le Novembre, renseigné ce soir à 10 17/64.

Il y a eu aussi moins d'affaires sur le disponible américain, mais la rapidité de la baisse qui a surpris les acheteurs est peut-être cause de leur réserve.

En tous cas, pour ce qui est des prix, la baisse est sensible, car, aux cours de 7.10 pour le spot, de 6.44 pour l'octobre-novembre et de 6.38 pour le janvier-février, elle s'élève respectivement à 41.42 et 38 points de baisse.

Graines de Coton

Les arrivages sont bons en eux-mêmes et bien supérieurs à ceux de l'année dernière, mais il y a des besoins, tant pour l'exportation que pour les huileries de notre place et tout ce qui se présente au marché est immédiatement enlevé à des prix soutenus. La dernière cote du disponible a été de P.T. 79 1/2.

En contrats, il n'y a que des affaires rares et intermittentes mais les prix sont restés constamment soutenus, sauf aujourd'hui où ils ont fini par fléchir à P.T. 70 3/4 à cause de Hull sortant. Dans tous les cas, la spéculation ne semble guère avoir d'intérêts dans l'article.

L'Angleterre commence à acheter de nos graines un peu plus libéralement. Les derniers prix payés par Hull sont de £ 7 17/6 pour septembre, £ 7 5/4 à 7 7/6 pour octobre et £ 7 1/3 pour les 3 mois.

LE COMITE.

Alexandrie, le 12 Septembre 1907.

CHRONIQUE FINANCIERE

Alexandrie le 13 Septembre.

En dépit de la réduction du taux privé d'escompte en Angleterre à 4 % et de la fermeté des valeurs égyptiennes au Stock Exchange, où la National Bank a même gagné 1/8 à 20 3/8, ici nous avons eu mardi un marché si déprimé et si nul comme affaires qu'il eût été préférable de chômer, comme la veille, à l'occasion du Jour de l'An Israélite. Une partie de la cote a subi un recul appréciable. Les rares transactions, d'ailleurs sans importance, qui ont été effectuées, se sont limitées aux National Bank, Agricole, Ritz, Urbaine, Nungovich et Port Said Salt.

La tenue du lendemain qu'on attendait pour juger de la tendance a été franchement mauvaise. Plus faibles, plus déprimées, les valeurs n'ont donné lieu qu'à des transactions insignifiantes et clairsemées.

Hier l'aspect est resté sensiblement le même. A signaler seulement un peu plus de tapage. Aujourd'hui enfin, sans pouvoir dire que la séance ait été brillante, on a pu cependant constater une certaine amélioration, sinon dans la cote dont les fluctuations sont assez inégales, au moins dans le volume des transactions qui a été un peu plus considérable. On en augure bien pour la semaine prochaine.

Sur l'ensemble des valeurs inscrites à la cote officielle de la Bourse d'Alexandrie 9 seulement sont en hausse et 17 en baisse, le plus grand nombre demeurant stationnaire aux cours antérieurs.

Parmi les fluctuations les plus sensibles, il faut signaler : à la hausse, la Delta Light qui gagne 5/16 à 9 3/4 et à la baisse, la Deferred Delta qui perd 1/2 livre à 8, l'Urbaine 5/16 à 3 1/32 vendeurs, et l'Auto-Transport 1/2 livre à 3 3/4.

L'Agricole progresse de 8 à 8 1/16, la National Bank de 20 à 20 3/16, les Tramways d'Alexandrie de 143 à 143 1/2 acheteurs les Privilegiés et de 300 à 301 les Dividendes, les Markets de 27/6 à 27/9, la Banque d'Atènes de 109 à 110, les Estates de 5/8 à 21/32 et l'Abonkir de 27/- à 27/6.

D'autre part, l'Alexandria Water Retraite de 11 3/8 à 11 1/4, les Jouissances Eaux du Caire de 203 à 200, la Salt and Soda de 18/9 à 18/6, l'Obligation Crédit Foncier de 301 à 300 l'ancienne et de 254 1/2 à 253 1/2 la nouvelle, la Cassa di Sconto de 39 à 38, la Delta Land de 1 3/4 à 1 11/16, l'Ordinary Khedivial Mail de 21/- à 20/6, la Land Bank de 7 1/4 à 7 1/8, la Building Lands de 2 3/16 à 2, l'Union Foncière de 4 1/2 à 4 5/16, le Crédit Franco-Egyptien de 4 1/16 à 4, la Port Said Salt de 14 à 13/9, et les Ritz Hotels de 5/8 à 1/2.

Au cours de la huitaine il a été vendu aux enchères publiques 100 Estates à 21/32, 50 Delta Light à 9 9/16, 25 Anglo-American Nile à 2, 3375 Ritz Hotels à 1/2, 60 actions nouvelles de la Société des Immeubles de la rue Cherif à 4 1/8 et 75 actions anciennes Cassa di Sconto à 38 1/4. C'est à ces exécutions, ainsi qu'aux réalisations et liquidations forcées qu'il faut attribuer en partie la faiblesse du marché. La cherté du numéraire y est également pour beaucoup : les banques y ont payé de 7 à 9 % d'intérêt et la plupart d'entre elles, à la clôture d'un compte, n'acceptent pas de le renouveler. En général nos établissements de crédit ne consentent des avances qu'à une élite peu nombreuse de clients. Seul ou à peu près le Crédit Lyonnais ouvre des comptes courants avec une marge de 40 %, mais uniquement pour les titres de premier ordre, tels que l'Agricole, la National Bank, la Delta Light, et la Daira.

Nous sommes, en effet, à la veille de la récolte cotonnière et à cette époque on fait argent de tout pour faire face aux nécessités du moment. Dans ces conditions il n'y a guère à espérer avant l'hiver l'afflux de capitaux dont notre corbeille des valeurs a un si pressant besoin pour se remettre à flot. Quant à savoir si le numéraire acquis au pays par la récolte suffira pour rétablir l'équilibre ébranlé, on est généralement pour l'affirmative, à condition que le coton se maintienne à de bons prix : on est déjà fixé sur l'abondance de la récolte, qui sera sensiblement supérieure à celle déjà exceptionnelle de l'année dernière ; quant à la question du prix, elle dépend beaucoup de la récolte aux Etats-Unis, de l'absence en Amérique des cotons fins et de la demande de la filature.

En Angleterre on est favorablement impressionné par les mesures du Trésor Américain prises en vue de prévenir une crise en automne. Jusqu'ici on ne signale aucune demande de ce côté-là et il n'y en a pas en perspective pour un avenir rapproché. Quand on pense que l'année dernière à pareille date l'Angleterre a dû fournir à l'Amérique plus de 3 millions de livres sterling, on ne peut qu'être rassuré cette année-ci, où l'Egypte sera presque seule à puiser dans ses coffres. La lenteur avec laquelle la réserve de la Banque d'Angleterre augmente, bien que son taux d'escompte soit de 1/2 % plus élevé que celui du taux privé, est cependant surprenante. Cette réserve, en effet, n'est que de 1 1/4 % supérieure à celle de vendredi dernier, soit 51 1/4 contre 50 %. Il paraît que les rentrées sont à peu près nulles.

L'allure déprimée de notre marché, habitué depuis quelques semaines à suivre les places dirigeantes, est d'autant plus anormale que les valeurs égyptiennes, si elles n'ont pas donné lieu en Europe à un fort mouvement d'affaires, ont été pourtant très soutenues. La plupart même sont en hausse : la Daira, la National Bank et la Delta Light bénéficient d'une avance de 1 8 aux cours respectifs de 12 7/8, 20 3/8 et 9 3/4; l'Agricole est ferme à 8 1/4; l'Union progresse de 101 1/4 à 101 3/4; l'action de Suez se relève de 4515 à 4547, l'action Crédit Foncier Egyptien de 685 à 688, et la Land Bank de 184 à 186 ; seul le Crédit Franco-Egyptien fléchit de 107.50 à 106. D'autre part, le Consolidé Anglais gagne 3/4 de livre à 82 1/2 et la Rente Française 48 points à 94.80. Le taux privé d'escompte s'inscrit en baisse de 1/8 à 4 %.

On discute beaucoup en ce moment sur l'encaisse des banques locales. Les uns prétendent qu'elle est excessivement réduite et les autres au contraire qu'elle est exceptionnellement abondante. Nous croyons pouvoir dire qu'elle est en tous cas suffisante pour les besoins actuels. Le fait est qu'au moment de la crise nos établissements de crédit ont importé une forte quantité de numéraire, pour augmenter précisément leurs encaisses menacées par la panique. Depuis, pour ne point se trouver prises au dépourvu en cas de retour de circonstances analogues, elles ont dû restreindre leurs avances. Ce qui montre que leurs disponibilités existantes ne sont pas épuisées, c'est qu'elles n'ont pas importé d'or pendant le mois d'Août. Plusieurs même ont en réserve un stock pour le commencement de la récolte cotonnière. Les sommes nécessaires pour financer celle-ci seront d'ailleurs obtenues sans obstacles en Europe au moment voulu, c'est-à-dire vers la fin septembre. La seule difficulté avec laquelle on ait à compter est l'acquisition directe du fellah, qui ne consent à se dessaisir de son coton que contre espèces sonnantes. Le drainage opéré par cette habitude est pour beaucoup dans la disette automnale d'or dont souffre périodiquement notre marché.

Des diverses observations que nous venons de faire, il est facile de tirer la conclusion sur l'allure probable du marché des valeurs : durant un avenir plus ou moins rapproché il n'y a pas à espérer d'amélioration appréciable dans la situation monétaire locale et par conséquent, si une hausse notable se produit, elle ne pourra être attribuée à l'afflux de numéraire attendu. D'autre part, les bas prix actuels ne sont guère susceptibles d'une dépréciation; d'autant plus que la crise proprement dite est plutôt sur son déclin. Les probabilités sont donc pour un état stationnaire jusqu'à ce que le paiement de la récolte cotonnière ait ravivé le pays par la circulation d'or qui lui manque.

Dans l'intérieur les achats de terrains continuent. Ainsi, la Sidi Salem vient de vendre encore 60 feddans de sa propriété à raison de 100 livres le feddan. On voit par là que les terrains de culture n'ont pas été atteints par la crise.

Il n'en est pas de même pour les terrains à bâtir situés dans les banlieues du Caire et d'Alexandrie. Ceux-ci ont été approximativement ramenés à leurs prix antérieurs et les cours des titres de sociétés qui ont fait leurs acquisitions au moment de l'emballement ont évidemment baissé en proportion.

Hier a eu lieu la troisième assemblée de la Bourse and Banking. Les actionnaires ont vivement protesté contre une liquidation amiable de la société et, un vote de blâme ayant été émis contre le conseil, celui-ci a démissionné en masse; mesure d'ailleurs tardive puisque aussi bien les actionnaires ont suspendu ses pouvoirs. Une commission, composée de MM. S. Pappo, J. Aghion et A. Nahman, a été nommée pour vérifier les comptes et le bilan; elle soumettra ses observations à une assemblée des actionnaires qui aura lieu le 24 courant, date à laquelle la société se trouve précisément assignée en état de faillite par la Banque de Salonique, pour un effet impayé d'environ 6000 livres. Nous sommes étonnés que les actionnaires n'aient pas encore intenté de poursuites contre les administrateurs qui, étant solvables et pleinement responsables, devaient rembourser le capital.

Circulaire H. De Vries et Boutigny

NOTES ET CRITIQUES

Le Caire, Vendredi 13 Septembre.
Le taux de l'escompte libre à Londres est resté invarié à 4 pour cent.
Au Stock Exchange, le Consolidé anglais a haussé hier de $\frac{1}{2}$ à 82 $\frac{1}{2}$. L'Unifié a gardé son cours de la veille à 101 $\frac{1}{2}$. La National Bank et l'Agricole ont été soutenues à 20 $\frac{1}{2}$ et 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ respectivement. La Delta a été fermée à 12 $\frac{1}{2}$, de même que la Delta Light à 9 $\frac{1}{2}$.
A Paris, le Crédit Foncier Egyptien a gagné 1 franc à 688, la Banque d'Athènes 1 franc à 113 et les Lots Turcs 1 franc à 166.

Ici, les velléités d'amélioration qu'avaient montrées en clôture le marché hier, n'ont malheureusement pas persisté et la lourdeur a prédominé durant toute la séance. Malgré les affaires peu nombreuses et l'abondance des réalisations, la plupart des cours se sont maintenus avec assez d'aisance et ceux qui ont rétrogradé ne l'ont fait que très légèrement. Quelques valeurs influencées par les cours de Londres ont même bénéficié de quelques fractions.
Dans le compartiment des Banques, la National Bank haussée à 20 $\frac{1}{2}$ 8/16. L'Agricole est calme à 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ 1/16. La Casa di Sconto se relève à 37-38. La Banque d'Athènes réagit à 108-109.
La Delta Light progresse à 9 13/16. Les Jouissances Eaux du Caire se tassent à 196-197 et la Delta Sanieh à 12 5/8. Les obligations antérieures du Crédit Foncier reculent à 300. L'obligation Behéra est demandée à 4 1/16. La fondatrice Allotment revient à P.T. 60. L'entreprise and Development fléchit à 8 9/16 tandis que sa fondatrice continue à haussier à 10 $\frac{1}{2}$. La Société d'Entreprises Immobilières et Travaux maintient son cours de 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ tandis que la part est un peu moins soutenue à 42-43. L'Union Foncière retombe à 4 5/16.
Dans le groupe des Hôtels, les Baehier, moins fermes, s'inscrivent à 6-6 1/16. Les Ritz sont en légère avance à 9 1/16.
Parmi les petites valeurs, la Delta Land, moins bien tenue, mollit à 1 5/8 11/16. Les Estates sont en progrès à 0 5/8 11/16, tandis que leur part s'affaïssit à 2 7/8. L'Aboukir est en bonne tendance à 27/8 et les Oasis à 0 1/2 9/16.

Le marché des valeurs étant fermé le samedi pendant la saison d'été, le prochain numéro de notre Circulaire ne paraîtra que le Lundi 16 Septembre courant.
Les milieux financiers américains ont enregistré avec beaucoup de satisfaction les récentes déclarations de M. Schaw, le prédecesseur de M. Cortelyou au département du Trésor, actuellement président d'un des plus grands établissements financiers de New-York, la Carnegie Trust Co., qui parlant de la crise américaine, a déclaré :
"Ne perdons pas la tête." Les produits annuels de notre agriculture dépassent 6,500 millions de dollars et nous pouvons tabler cette année sur des récoltes au moins moyennes. Le rendement de nos mines est de plus de 1,500,000,000 de dollars, celui de nos forêts de 1,000,000,000 de dollars, aucune de ces sources de richesse n'est tarie. Nos usines, en dehors de celles qui préparent les denrées alimentaires, produisent par an 1,200,000,000 de dollars de marchandises. Aucun haut fourneau n'est éteint. Les chemins de fer encaissent chaque année plus de deux milliards de dollars; leur prospérité ne s'est pas encore démentie. Bon an mal an nos chemins et autres industries distribuent en salaires près de 3,500,000,000 de dollars. Depuis plusieurs années, nous sommes encore à entendre parler de réduction de prix de la main d'œuvre.
"La situation des entreprises industrielles ne doit pas être mesurée par les cours de leurs actions. Nous cherchons, sans la trouver, la cause matérielle de la crise. Nous entrons dans le domaine du sentiment, ici tout change. Si les déposants retirent leurs fonds des établissements financiers pour les cacher, si les banques suppriment les facilités à leurs clients, si enfin le public s'arrête de consommer; si il est évident que les effets matériels de notre hallucination ne manquent pas de se produire. Les crises de ce pays ont toujours été plus ou moins dues à l'imagination de ses citoyens."

Nous prions instamment les personnes qui ne reçoivent pas régulièrement cette Circulaire de nous aviser sans retard, afin que nous puissions prendre des mesures immédiates pour assurer la ponctualité du service d'expédition.
